"(Signed) _____

"Or the mark of _____"

XVII. Each elector shall sign the voting-paper, or affix his mark thereto in the presence of the returning officer.

XVIII. Any voting-paper which is not so signed or marked or on which votes are given to more persons than there are persons to be elected, shall be invalid.

XIX. When a person presents himself to vote, the returning officer shall satisfy himself that the person is an elector, and shall then place against his name in the copy of the list of electors a tick, which will denote that that elector has voted.

XX. The elector shall give his vote by placing his voting-paper in a receptacle hereinafter called the urn.

XXI. Just before the commencement of the poll, the returning officer shall show the urn empty to such persons as may be present at the polling-place and shall then place it in his view and keep it there till the close of the poll.

XXII. At the close of the poll, in the presence of such electors, if any, as may be in attendance, the returning officer shall—

- (a) take the voting-papers out of the urn and separate those, which he admits as valid from those, if any, which he deems invalid, endorsing on the latter the word "rejected" and the ground of rejection,
- (b) count the valid votes given to each person, and prepare and certify a return setting forth—
 - (i) the number of electors who presented themselves to vote,
 - (ii) the names of the persons for whom valid votes were given,
 - (iii) the number of valid votes given for each person, and
 - (iv) the names of the persons (to the number of the persons to be elected) to whom most such votes were given;
- (c) seal up in separate packets the voting-papers which he has admitted as valid and those which he has rejected as invalid, and endorse on each packet a description of its contents and the date of the election to which it relates, and the name of the Sub-District for which the election was held; and
- (d) permit any person for whom votes have been given to take a copy of, or an extract from, the return.

XXIII. The returning officer shall then forward the return and the packets of voting-papers to the Magistrate of the District, who shall record a declaration of the result of the election and cause notice of his election to be given to each person elected.

XXIV. (1) The Magistrate of the District shall retain for a year the return and the packets of voting-papers forwarded to him by the returning officer, and shall then, unless there appear to him any reason for retaining them for a further period, cause them to be destroyed in his presence.

(2) While the return is in the custody of the Magistrate of the District, it shall be open to the inspection of any elector during office hours free of charge.

(3) While the packets are in the custody of the Magistrate of the District, they shall not be opened, and their contents shall not be inspected, except under his written order and on such conditions as he may deem fit to impose.

XXV. Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any persons, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those persons to be declared to be elected, the returning officer may give such additional vote in writing, but shall not in any other case be entitled to vote at an election for which he is returning officer.

XXVI. If a person be elected for more than one Sub-District, the District Magistrate of Ajmere shall decide of which Local Board he shall be a member; and in the other Sub-District, or each of the other Sub-Districts, as the case may be, the person not returned as elected, to whom the largest number of votes was given, shall be deemed to have been elected.

XXVIII. Each Local Board shall elect from among its own members so many persons to be members of the District Board as the Chief Commissioner has assigned as proper for its representation on that Board.
